MAY BE SHOWS 'ALMOST' AS GOOD

But That Cabaret Minstrel Kappas and Psi Oats Gave Last Night is Leading the League.

HOME TALENT? ALL BOSH

It Was a Regular Show With Regular Music That Folks go 40 Miles and Pay $2 to See.

*****
TO BE REPEATED TONIGHT.
 *****
 The management of the cabaret minstrel which was given at the Coliseum last night announced today that it would be repeated tonight at the same place and same time, 8:15. The storm last night kept many people away and many tickets which had been sold could not be used. It is felt that as good a crowd will attend tonight as was out last night.
 *****

There have been home talent shows in Rushville "Almost" as good as the one presented last night by the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity and the Psi Iota Xi sorority at the Coliseum—but not quite.

To say just what the large crowd that "Almost" filled the Coliseum felt, the Cabaret Minstrel was "some show." It was the kind of show that lots of people journey forty miles and pay two dollars to see and do not get half the enjoyment.

The setting was unique, the idea was brand new, the music was far above the average for home talent, the local color injected into the lines made it one Ralph Bingham roar of laughter after another—and best of all, the "stage business" went off without a hitch.

It would be very unjust to say that any one feature of the minstrel contributed any more to the general merit of the night than any other. It was all one conglomeration of fun—just plain fun that left the crowd as good natured as if the temperature had not been up to ninety. In fact as a remover of thought of hot weather and that worn-out feeling, the show led the league.

The stage was doubled in size to accommodate the retentions (Sam) Schuck safe where reigned in all his managerial glory one Sam Schuck (Stanton McBride) and where gum-chewed the evening away one red-headed Marie (Hannah Morris) who discoursed at length on the disagreeableness of her job and of the palmy days when she was a regular waitress.

The naturalness and ease with which the chorus and principals got on and off the stage without any of that old mania of home talent affairs, staginess, was a revelation and reflected much credit on Denning Havens, who directed the production and who had a very prominent part.

Music came with astounding rapidity once the chorus and principals filed on the stage singing "This is The Life." The guests, Marie Clawson, Harriet Vredenburg, Alleine Budd, Zelma Cox, Belma Clark, Norma Smith, Nettie Clark, Lucile Gray, Mary Carr, Mrs. Carl Gunning and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell, and Weldon Brann, Ben Humes, Edward Berry, Edwin Frazee, Carl Gunning, Donald Sparks, Lawrence Clark, Dr. Fred Inlow and Donald Alexander, had seats at tables for four, arranged just like a "regular" cafe.

Dr. Hale Pearsey, who shall be known as Sambo, with the white garb of a waiter, black face, bi-plane necktie and watermelon mouth, "led

COUNCIL TO TALK METERS TONIGHT

Will Hold Special Session Tonight as Contract Black Administration Made is About Out

IT IS NECESSARY TO BUY MORE

The city council will meet in special session tonight to take up the purchase of water meters and to talk over some other things of importance. All the meters that have been installed by the present administration have been purchased by the city under the contract that the Black administration had with the meter companies and as the supply has about been exhausted it is necessary to buy more meters.

Applications for meters have been coming very fast and it will be necessary for the city to purchase more meters at once. The contract that the old administration had is still in force but if this company cannot supply the demand the council will look elsewhere for a suitable meter. The special meeting was to have been held last Tuesday night but all the members could not be present.

AUTHORIZES AN INCREASE IN STOCK

Rushville Glove Company Increases Capitalization $10,000 by Issuing That Much in Preferred Stock.

THE CONCERN IS THRIVING

The Rushville Glove company yesterday authorized an increase of $10,000 in preferred stock. The whole issue will be sold in Rushville and Rush county as it is desired to make this concern as much of a home institution as possible. Only a small amount of the stock is owned out of the county. The total stock of the company now amounts to $35,000.

The glove company has had remarkable success. It is now making a hundred and five thousand dozen pairs of gloves a year, whereas three years ago it was making fifteen thousand dozen a year. The plant is now running full tilt on an order of fifty thousand dozen for one firm. There are fifty people on the payroll at the building where the plant is located is crowded. The top floor was rented when the company first went into the new building. It is possible that the company may have to increase its equipment by a third or a half next fall. The company is in its fifth year now and has everything it can make this year.

Arizona in 1912 produced 350,000,000 pounds of copper.

LOCATION NOT TO BE CHANGED

Promoters of Campaign to Raise Fund For Public Playground Say it Would be Impractical.

LAWN FETE TO BE SATURDAY

Suggestion That Grounds be Connected With Country Club Declared to Have Many Drawbacks.

Persons who are promoting the campaign to raise money for the purpose of equipping a public playground in the city park and employing a supervisor declare that it will not be possible to install the playground any other place than in the city park because the funds were so limited with this understanding.

Women who have agitated the project before this year and who are at the head of the movement this summer say positively that the playgrounds will be placed in the city park for a number of reasons and that it would be impractical to locate it at the Rushville Gun and Country club grounds, as has been suggested in some quarters.

Arrangements are about completed for the lawn fete which will be held on the court house lawn tomorrow afternoon and evening. The proceeds will be used for the playground fund. According to reports, the affair will be well patronized because many people are interested in the undertaking, as is indicated by the large sum which is reported to have been subscribed already. Wagoner's orchestra of twelve pieces will furnish music at the fete.

J. D. Case, who has been circulating the subscription paper, said today that several persons had come to him and stated that they wished to withdraw their name from the subscription paper if the playground were placed at the Gun and Country club. They stated that they had pledged money with the understanding that the playground would be installed at the city park and they did not care to support a movement which would put the equipment on privately owned ground.

The chief argument against installing the playground at the country club is that it would create an additional expense. It could not be expected that the owners of the ground would allow the free use of the land, whereas the city park is owned by the city and the city council has already granted the Rushville Civic Improvement and Social Service association the right to use the park for this purpose.

Another argument advanced against the club grounds is its location. It is true that the city park is not centrally located, but it is more centrally located than the club grounds and there are cement sidewalks from all parts of the city to it. The city park is better situated for children in the north and west parts of the city than is the club grounds.

Furthermore, it is argued that the club grounds are located between the mill race and the river and that there would be too great danger of some of the smaller children drowning.

DEPARTMENT MADE RUN.

The fire department was called to the home of Harry Pea, in West Seventh street, last night about seven o'clock, but the blaze was extinguished without the aid of the department. A mattress on an upstairs bed was found to be on fire and it was thrown out the window. The house was filled with smoke and a scare resulted. It is not known how the mattress caught fire.

STORM AT LAST BRINGS RELIEF

Heavy Rainfall, Accompanied by Vivid Electrical Display, Lowers Temperature Late Today.

BUT HUMIDITY WAS FIERCE

Before Rain Heat Was Terrific—Storm Last Night Did no Damage to Speak of in County.

*****
STORM LATE TODAY.
 A heavy storm passed over Rushville about three-thirty o'clock this afternoon and brought relief from the excessive heat. There was a vivid electrical display that probably did some damage.

People can't be blamed if they see no more hope in a thunder shower. Every time one passes by this way it gets hotter. Today was no exception to the rule. A heavy storm last night broke in this vicinity and Rushville was on the edge of it. Some temporary relief was gained from the storm, but today—

It must have been the humidity again, although as an excuse this is beginning to fall flat. Humidity has been passing off as heat for some time and allowing heat to fly false colors. But heat has about reached the end of its string. A long suffering people are not thus to be trifled with long. There will be a reckoning.

But to return to the subject of heat and storms and other summer topics the temperature again was edging up to the century dash on the thermometer today. Ever since Sunday the mercury has been doing antics something similar to today.

Beginning with the twenty-seventh, the last four days of June last year were just such as Rushville and Rush county have suffered since Sunday. Then as now the temperature was right at a hundred degrees above zero. About the first of July there was a cool wave that was a great relief, but toward the last of July there was another hot "spell" when the temperature was up to 105 above zero.

Later reports of the storm near Orange yesterday afternoon are in effect that a number of trees were struck by lightning and that several telephone poles were splintered by bolts.

The same storm that caused the loss of a barn and shocked a man near Orange did some damage in the vicinity of Raleigh. A cow in a field on Omer Gatewood's farm was killed by lightning. A number of trees were struck.

KANGAROO COURT

(By United Press.)

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 26.—Sheriff Gladioux's plan whereby he said he would insure good order among the prisoners in the county jail by establishing a "court" there is receiving no little criticism here by many who term it a "kangaroo" court. The sheriff says this "court" never fines a man more than $1. and that the money always is put in a general fund for the purchase of tobacco. Prisoners say that the maximum fine is what the prisoner has; that many prisoners are flogged and that a "big black negro" is the high court officer who does the pocket searching.

The sheriff denies the flogging charge and says his "court" is only for the enforcement of discipline.

Canada in 1913 produced 76,720,000 bushels of potatoes.

HE FORGOT COLLECTION

Terre Haute Minister Had to Borrow From His Wife.

(By United Press.)
 Terre Haute, Ind., June 26.—Indignation of local church goers who happened to be in the Christian church here recently was nearing the boiling point when the Rev. Arthur Deeter, one of the oldest ministers in the city, continued on nation changed to delight, for Rev. Deeter was so interested in his subject that he turned the sermon off and on, preaching one of the longest sermons on record. But the indignation into a benediction, forgetting to pass the collection box.

Rev. Deeter admitted it. "I did forget it," he chuckled, "and I had to borrow from my wife this week."

High temperatures east and south for the Ohio valley are predicted. "Somewhat warmer in the lower lake and middle Atlantic states," was the way the prediction read.

CASE CONTINUED.

The case of Harold Cheney against Drs. Paxton and Elliott was continued yesterday about noon in the Shelby circuit. The forenoon was taken up with an argument for a continuance asked by the plaintiff and Judge Blair granted the request. The affidavit for a continuance stated that Dr. H. H. Elliott was unable to appear. The case will probably start Sept. 21.

A marriage license was issued Thursday afternoon to Edward Manley and Mattie Moreland.

SEVEN DIE IN THE SALEM FIRE

Revised Figures Today Places Estimate on Loss in Massachusetts City at $10,000,000.

FIRE STILL BURNED TODAY

Thousands of People Made Paupers at One Blow Roam Streets and Water Famine Threatens

(By United Press.)

Salem, Mass., June 26.—Seven dead is the toll of the great Salem fire that was raging today and had continued since late yesterday. Revised estimates of the loss today places it at $10,000,000. The fire was still burning fiercely today, but it was confined to the original to two-mile belt.

The dead are:
 Miss Mary Fiske, nurse, killed by excitement while in an ambulance; Mrs. Edward McGrone, killed by heart trouble when her house caught fire; John Lee, owner of Chinese laundries, body found in ruins; unidentified child; unidentified body believed to be Mrs. Sarah Abbott; two other unidentified bodies found in ruins.

Added to the horror today was a great scarcity of water almost threatening famine. Springs outside the city were in great demand.

Thousands of people made paupers at one blow roamed the streets today. Many were frantic with fear for missing friends. The firemen were completely spent after twenty hours of struggle with insufferable heat.

The midnight great fire-fighting force of nearly 1,000 men, drawn from at the cities and towns within a radius of 25 miles was helpless. The water supply has given out.

Dynamite has taken the place of water in the mad fight to check the flames. But this is ineffective. The center of the city is doomed. Ten thousand persons are homeless.

Untold horrors have come in the wake of this terrible calamity. Scores have gone mad, driven insane by the excessive heat and the excitement. The mercury stood at 74 degrees when, with a small explosion, fire started in a leather factory in the manufacturing section of the city. Then came the first alarm, a second a general and then calls for help to outside cities and towns.

Fanned by a fresh gale from the northwest, the fire spread. Carried a mile by flying embers, flames began in other sections of the city until at last three large sized conflagrations were raging.

Panic reigns in the city. The militia, aided by nearly 1,000 policemen from this and other cities, stands guard about the ruins, keeping off the looters.

Added to the horror of the situation, before midnight came the information that firebugs were at work. Two fires started shortly after 10 o'clock. One was in the Salem Savings bank, opposite the office of the Salem News. Another was in Arnold's stable, off Mason street. Firemen say both fires were of incendiary origin.

Terror was increased by the fear that persons had been driven mad by the fire and had become incendiaries. No one knew where the flames would be seen next.

At 10 o'clock the great Naumkeag Cotton Mills, one of the greatest cotton manufacturing plants in New England, was in ruins.

Governor Walsh arrived here tonight, accompanied by a number of his

START OF GREAT WHEAT HARVEST

What Happens When Farmers Call For Hands.

UNSKILLED GET $2.50 A DAY

A Description, From the Spot, of the Arrival of the Harvesters—What They Are Like, How They Come, How They Are Received and How They Are Put to Work.

"Menless jobs instead of jobless men" in the very immediate future throughout the United States are predicted by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Western farmers want harvest workers. In Kansas the wages range from $2.50 to $3 a day for unskilled labor and higher prices for engine drivers and expert workers.

On the southern border of the Kansas wheat belt the army of harvesters has begun its labors. While there has gone out a demand for $2,000 men, to work in the entire wheat belt, the first great call and the most insistent is from Kansas, where 60,000 harvesters are needed, according to the report of the labor bureau. Allowing for duplications, this has been cut to 42,000, with 6,300 extra teams and 2,300 cooks. Just why there should be this need is not understood until one travels over the wheat counties. The Kansas City correspondent of the New York Post in an interesting article explains conditions.

The average county in the wheat section has a small population. The farms are large, the towns small. Take Pawnee county, for instance, out in southwest Kansas. It has a population of 8,500 or 1,700 families. There are 275,000 acres of wheat to cut and thrash. If every available man in the county could be put at the job the work would not be done during the short period during which wheat must be handled. Once ripe, the heads shell freely, and the grain must be garnered.

How Help Is Obtained.

As the present crop approached its splendid promise, with what amounts to two crops in one, the farmers began to call for help. This has been developed into a system. With a state labor bureau in correspondence with county officers, city clerks, farmers and township officers, the needs are tabulated. Even the fraternal orders have taken a hand, and have sent back to Indiana, Ohio and other states to fraternities to send men west. Hundreds of college boys have been enlisted and come to the harvest fields for the experience and to earn vacation money.

When a single county, as is the case with several in southwest Kansas, needs 3,000 to 4,000 men it is policy for the railroads to get the men there and save the crop. Thousands of dollars have been sent east to pay the transportation of workers, the agents of the western roads holding the funds contributed by farmers and wiring orders to furnish tickets. To pay this army means a large drain on the currency supply of the interior banks.

The 40,000 men in Kansas will draw over $100,000 a day for labor alone. To say nothing of the expense in feeding them. Most of this money will be taken out of the state, for except what is spent in traveling the harvesters have no expense personally. Likewise it is all currency, for the farmer finds his checks of little value to strangers.

The class of men westward bound for the harvest includes workmen from the lumber camps, factory men seeking a bit of outdoor work with good wages, college boys and small farmers from adjoining states.

Met by Waiting Employers. Farmers in automobiles, wagons and buggies wait for the men at the stations, and cook shacks are ready in the fields to serve meals.

The men are, for the most part, unfamiliar with harvest work, but they are given the routine hand labor, while experienced men handle the binders and headers. In addition to the imported labor, all available local help is busy, and the towns are for the time deserted of able-bodied laborers.

The gathering of 8,000,000 acres of wheat in Kansas, for instance, is not all done at one time. The work begins on the southern border, and three or four weeks elapse before the army of workers reaches the Nebraska line. The wheat ripens slowly, the lower latitudes first turning yellow. This means economy of time and effort, for the men who have first begun will go with the ripening of the wheat northward until they reach the northern limit, thus getting a month or more of steady work. The peculiarity of this year's wheat is that the straw is heavy, and binders will be used more freely than in most years.

Marks a Change in American Indian. Typifying in a striking degree the changed status of the American Indian of today, the first club ever formed of college students of Indian blood has effected a permanent organization in Oklahoma. In a general way it has as its purpose the betterment of the race and the preservation of Indian history and traditions. Its specific purpose is to interest the young folk in college education. The name of the club is "Oklusha Degotega" and means "tribes standing together."

Write your "For Sale" ad SIMPLY stating ever detail about the article that you would want an ad to give if you were anxious to buy something of the kind yourself. Give a little thought to the "selling points" about the article, and put THEM into your ad. Then run the ad MORE THAN ONCE, if that is necessary. It may or may not be.

IRENE WARFIELD.

When in doubt, wait and see what Miss Irene Warfield of the Essanay Eastern Dramatic company is wearing, for, besides work, this popular young photo play star has two hobbies. One is clothes, and the other is to attend an afternoon tango tea.

W. L. Abington has been engaged by Daniel V. Arthur, managing director of the Playgoers' Film company, for the part of the Count de Bretigny in the production of "Manon Lescaut," in which Mme. Lina Cavalieri and Lucien Muratore are to be starred.

The Roland Feature Film Company has just released a five reel photoplay entitled "Trapped in the Great Metropolis." The photo play contains 500 scenes and over 400 characters were needed for the ensemble work for the scene of depicting police life in New York city.

Lucius J. Henderson has just been engaged as feature producing director for the California Motion Picture Corporation by Herbert Payne, the president.

DEVOTES MILLIONS TO STUDY CANCER

Henry Ford Will Equip Hospital in Detroit For Study and Prevention of Disease.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE TODAY

(By United Press.)
Detroit, Mich., June 26.—Henry Ford, big automobile manufacturer, today announced the appropriation of many of his millions to finance a fight against cancer. He will change the central hospital he recently took over here into an institution for the study and prevention of cancer.

"We plan to prevent cancer rather than to cure it. In that way the hospital will be unique," Mr. Ford said. The hospital will open within two months. Ford will put about $2,500,000 into the experiment. Ford will have local doctors to work out his theories.

David and Robert Smith of Newcastle, doing business under the firm name of R. R. Smith Sons, have filed an account suit against Franklin B. Miles, demanding $1,200.

John A. Walter, who has been the Big Four agent in Carthage for the past four years, has been transferred to North Vernon. He will not move his family there for the present.

The missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold an exchange in the Morris room in Second street Saturday. All members of the church are urged to bring things to the room as none will be solicited.

The case of Nora Camp, formerly Nora Hutchinson against Elmer Hutchinson, on a note demanding $200 will start in the circuit court Monday morning before a jury with Special Judge Raymond S. Springer of Congressville on the bench.

THE film representation which the Universal has evolved from the history of Samson and told in six wonderful reels follows the account in the book of Judges with startling accuracy. Nothing is left out. Warren Kerrigan plays the leading role in this stupendous new photo play spectacle.

"Napoleon" (Eclectic) shows five reels of historical drama, teeming with action. This is not the first time the life of the "man of destiny" has been filmed—in fact, there are several pictures under the general name of "Napoleon" upon the market at the present time. His life, which up to his coronation has but little bearing upon the future history of the world, is dealt with lightly. From that time on his trials, battles, love affairs and general history given with great care to detail.

THAT SUNDAY RUSH

A Talk to Mrs. Housewife of Rushville.

When that visitor is here from out-of-town you hurry home from church on Sunday morning to make sure the big dinner is going to be just right. You "pitch in" yourself and when everything is ready you're too tired and hot to enjoy the meal. When the meal is over there comes the cleaning up before that afternoon drive and for the rest of the day you feel unfit for your role of entertaining hostess.

There's only one way to overcome that worry and hurry, to prevent "that tired feeling" before your day of rest is half through. Your husband will agree on that point when you suggest taking Mr. and Mrs. Out-of-Town to a Sunday dinner at the

Elephant and Tiger Enmity.

One of the most interesting employments of the elephant is in hunting tigers. From the lofty back of his elephant, at a height which, increased by the howdah, may be twelve or fourteen feet above the ground, the hunter can take his aim at a tiger with a coolness that he would not possess if facing the animal on terra firma. If, as sometimes occurs, the tiger makes a leap for the elephant he seldom succeeds in attaining the man in the howdah, although the driver in his exposed position on the elephant's neck, is in greater danger.

There seems to be a natural enmity between elephants and tigers, although an elephant will not attack a tiger unless cornered or compelled to do so by the tiger's own fault. But then a good fighting elephant will if he can once get his tusks to bear on his enemy gore him to death or literally crush him by kneeling on him. It is said that the mere presence of a dead tiger will drive some elephants to fury.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Indiana, the Pivot.

Indiana, the pivotal state, is in dire danger of slipping back into the Republican column, and "as goes Indiana so goes the nation," according to a statement by a brilliant Indiana Democrat—famed as far as the creed is flung—made to a Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, a Democratic newspaper.

"It is lamentable," the above-mentioned Democrat is reported to have said, "and in some cases absolutely pathetic—this slaughter of splendid prospects and of loyal men. Take Indiana. Since the war Indiana has been the pivotal political state. As goes Indiana, so goes the country, has been a truthful battle cry since the days of Morton and Hendricks.

"In November the Indiana Democrats will be lucky if they save seven representatives out of the general wreck. The President has built this status for Indiana.

"When Mr. Wilson made his demand for 'unqualified repeal, ungrudgingly granted,' Senator Kern came back to the Senate corridor sad of speech and sadder of heart.

"I looked for a great logical reason for this repudiation of the platform, said he, a convincing reason from the great leader who demanded it. But I had none. I am opposed to this surrender. I am unconvinced. But I am an organization Democrat. I must follow my leader, by all the precedents. And he did.

"And so did Ben Shively. There never was a braver and a better Democrat than Ben Shively. He is the backbone of the party in my state. He is always orthodox and loyal. He was deeply hostile to this repudiation of the national platform of his party. He foresaw grave danger and heavy loss. He fell in with a serious face behind the Presidential order and resolved to do his best and took his place in the ranks. He even hoped—did Senator Shively—that the Administration and the party might survive the error of the tolls repeal and pull through with a saving election, and even perhaps with a vindication of the year's record.

"But now, when the President seeks to pile Colombia upon Panama—another apology, another surrender and 25,000,000 simoleons of subsidy upon the whining sentiment of suffering Colombia—it is too much. It is a clear, straight surrender of Senator Ben F. Shively to the wolves of red-blooded Americanism."

CALLS ATTENTION TO PARTY PLEDGE

Republican Chairman Today Issues Statement to "Every Well-Wisher of Good Government."

HOLDS PLEDGE IS SACRED

Results of Primaries Over State Show Thousands of Well-Wishers Are Coming to its Support.

[Special to the Daily Republican.] Indianapolis, Ind., June 26.—The Republican State Central Committee today issued from headquarters in the Hotel Severin the following statement addressed to "every well-wisher of good government in Indiana:"

In the platform adopted at the last Republican State Convention is this declaration:

"Recognizing party management and control should, at all times, be responsive to, and representative of, the sentiment and will of the membership of the Party, and believing that an indifferent attitude towards this principle has been responsible in a great measure for party dissension in the past, we pledge ourselves to such reforms, in the methods of Party organizations, management and control, that in the future the right of individual participation on the part of membership within the Party shall be sacred and inviolable, and we further pledge ourselves that Party Programs, Party Platforms and Party Candidates shall be expressive only of the majority sentiment within the Party, free from dictation or duress on the part of Party management."

This is the declaration of the party in convention assembled and is the party's sacred pledge. It shall be our absolute purpose to carry out this declaration. The results of the primaries being held over the State show that thousands of well-wishers of good government are rallying to the Republican standard, and it is our most sincere desire that they all may know that every-one shall have an equal voice in the management of the Republican party's affairs. We regard this provision in the party's platform as our solemn promise. Its fulfillment shall be our most earnest, constant aim, and we ask the co-operation of every Republican to that end. We want every man who ever, in his life, voted the Republican ticket to know this. The advice, assistance and co-operation of everyone is most earnestly requested and will be most thoroughly appreciated.

The country needs a re-united Republican party. Remember, what his country needs, it is the duty of every man to give. Let us make the re-united Republican Party the one agency in this country to apply to new conditions the wisdom of experience and the efficacy of honest, zealous service—all "that no harm shall come to the Republic."

WILL H. HAYS, Chairman.

FIGHT MEANS MUCH TO MORAN

Should he Deliver the Necessary Punch to Jack Johnson he Would Have Fortune.

SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY

No Popularity For Colored Man Even if he Wins—$30,000 Win, Lose or Draw.

(BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS. Paris Correspondent of the U. P.)

Paris, June 26.—Jack Johnson and Frank Moran, black and white, meet here Saturday night at the Velodrome d'Hiver. If the white man wins, the lucky punch will be worth a fortune to him. If his punch lacks the necessary ginger, good night Mr. Moran:

That is the way the betting man sizes up the fight. For Moran it means everything. Either he will open his eyes on Sunday morning a famous fighter, with a golden sunrise and a golden day in front of him, or he will regain consciousness only to realize that his son has set and he is not even a has been; that he has had his chance and not made good; that he is an almost-was yet a never-was.

For Jack Johnson the fight doesn't mean so much. If he defeats Moran he will do more than is expected of him here. He will not gain a particle in popularity despite the fact that his need of public adoration is now a negligible quantity. Should he take the count he would lose nothing since he has nothing to lose. Win, lose or draw, he gets only his $30,000, plus $5,000 training expenses which he has now drawn. Lose or win he will become a professional automobile driver, having already signed a contract with certain makers of a Belgium car and a French firm of tire-makers, and made his plans for taking part in the French Grand Prix and the Russian Circuit this summer.

In his own words: He has "got his." A black satellite of Johnson's told the United Press correspondent "Jack don't care how the fight comes out: he's got his already and the way his future business is mapped out, it isn't goin' to hurt him much win or lose." There is only one hitch in this statement; Johnson hates the white man and unless circumstances have altered since the wise ones had a look-in, he will try to put Moran to sleep.

Moran, just emerging from his training camp on the banks of the River Oise—this stream is pronounced "was" in French, whatever, if any significance that may have—is quite the most cheerful, not to say nonchalant person hereabouts. Self-confidence bubbles over the top. And when anybody asks him if he expects to retire to the River Oise on Sunday he comes back with the merry persiflage: "Wrong number, Steve; after Saturday night my home's on the River Is."

If Moran, the Merry, is right in his dope, that same little River Is will mean be one of milk and honey, of gold and banknotes, for the lad from Smoketown, Penn., will be the most popular here who ever told the Statue of Liberty, Good Morning. Roosevelt's return from Africa; Cook's return from the North Pole (or vicinity), or any of the other homecomers will have nothing on him while vaudeville engagements and all the other spoils of pug-championship will put him where Rockefeller will be grinding his false teeth. If he gets licked: Curtain.

Johnson has already signed to fight Sam Langford in London in September or October, Dick Klegin, the youngster who staged motor polo in England being the sporting impresario back of the match. According to Dick and Jack no mention of the possible change of address on the part of the championship belt is mentioned in the contract. Gunboat Smith and George Carpenter, the latter being the French championship heavyweight of Europe, fight in July, in London, for the title of white heavyweight champion of the world. The winner of this event, it is said will fight the winner of the Moran-Johnson mill. This means that the American Smith will be the next aspirant, if betting odds and past performances mean anything.

The Velodrome d'Hiver—Winter Velodrome—promises to be jammed Saturday night. It holds some 35,000 people. Ordinarily it is used as a cyclorace arena but now everything is changed. The saucer track is so covered with numerous seats and the flat spaces inside the course is littered with chairs. Ringside seats are offered at $50 plus 10 per cent for the "poor tax" levied by the government.

The Velodrome is in the western outskirts of Paris, within a stone's throw of the River Seine. It is very difficult to reach save in taxis or other similar conveyances, surface cars and the underground—which at this point is 60 feet overhead—running to all points save those a person desires to go. A short distance farther west is the Issy-des-Moulinais Aerodrome; to the east is the Eiffel Tower and the Big Wheel; across the river is the Trocadero.

All about the building are the tiny wineshops, little groceries and so on, such as one sees in any big town suburb, the keepers of which are conservative Frenchmen who think "La savate" is the thing and that Moran and Johnson will try to kick each other to death in the ring.

The Belgian Congo has no native industries.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. ## COLLEGE HILL HERE SUNDAY

Member of Saturday Afternoon League of Cincinnati Will be Attraction Against Rushville

IKE JOHANNES WILL PITCH

Arcadians Expect a Hard Game and Team Will Have to Play Ball—New Outfielder Signed

The Arcadians expect a hard game Sunday when they take on the fast College Hill team of Cincinnati. The College Hill team is a member of the Saturday afternoon league there and has been playing good ball. The fans will have a chance to see Ike Johannes perform. Ike has consented to do the pitching and he is expected to give a good account of himself.

The fans have not been taking to the sport here as they should and Manager Fisher was talking some of closing the park. If the attendance Sunday proves satisfactory the Arcadians will continue. A change is likely to be made anyway as Fisher is determined to give the fans a fast article of ball. He will carry out the schedule if the fans show that they will support a good team.

He has booked some of the best attractions in semi-pro ball. Following the game Sunday with the College Hill team the Cincinnati Superbas will come for a return game and then the Cincinnati Shamrocks will play here. Following the game with the Shamrocks, Newcastle will be taken on. Fisher is determined to beat Newcastle this year and will work with this in view. There will not be any change in the lineup for Sunday with the exception of third base, but a change is likely to take place after Sunday if Fisher has his way.

A general shake-up will come if it is necessary to let the entire team go, but what Fisher will have a winner. The game here for the past two Sundays has proved a losing venture but the management believes if the fans are given a good attraction like the team coming Sunday the crowd will warrant the expense. ## KILLED BY A MOSQUITO

Exactly — there are hundreds of deaths each year that can be directly or indirectly traced to the simple little bites of mosquitoes. These little pests carry and spread disease. It's not so much the sting of their bite as the dread of infection. Therefore you should take extra precaution to treat mosquito bites as being more than mere bites.

Penslar Skeeter Dig

not only allays the itch and sting but sterilizes the part affected because of its antiseptic and healing properties. Used as a protection from the effect of mosquito bites, this lotion becomes doubly valuable. Put a bottle of it in your grip.

Franks, third; Mangold, left; Humphrey, center and Bauer, right; Fisher has secured a new outfielder for Sunday and he may be given a chance. ### GUNMEN NOT WANTED

(By United Press.)
Evansville, Ind., June 26.—Gunmen aren't wanted in Evansville. Mayor Bosse says he never carried a gun and he doesn't see why anyone else should. He has instructed the police to pay particular attention to the right-hand pocket of strangers. He told his aides to watch certain gamblers and relieve them of their "irons". He says he will break up a few games that have been going on.

WHITE TAFFETAS RELIEVED BY THE
BLACKNESS OF VELVET RIBBON
A STRONG FAVORITE FOR SUMMER

While black taffetas is still a leader, it is noticed as the season advances, that white is becoming more and more favored. At one of the recent race meets in Paris, white gowns predominated. Lace and net were used considerably over foundations of white satin or taffetas. There were numbers of black frocks too, relieved by the pure, crisp white of organdy vests and cuffs and one frock that caused quite a bit of attention showed a tunic of black organdy; this material has not been used for some years but with the growing inclination for sheer effects it may be seen often this season.

The afternoon frock of white taffetas shown in 8419-8420, consists of a separate blouse and skirt. A novel feature of this costume is the slip-on bodice which is without opening front or back and slips on over the head, middy-blouse fashion. The fullness at the front is drawn up in narrow box-plaits by means of narrow black velvet ribbon; this ribbon is used again on the sleeves and for drawing up the fullness on the tunic.

To copy this design in size 36, 2 1/4 yards of 36-inch material is needed for the bodice (8419) and 3 1/4 yards of the same width for the skirt (8420). White cotton ratine is used for the simple dress illustrated in 8388. Collar, cuffs and belt are of pale blue voile and blue porcelain buttons are used to close it.

For a girl of sixteen, 4 1/4 yards of 36-inch material is required with this model.

STATE DELAYS
MURDER TRIAL

Mexican Mediation is Cause of Ball
Case not Being Heard—Keen
Interest Taken

WOULD BE HARD FOR JURY

Civil Court has Ruled That he is
Answerable for Deed Rather
Than Court Martial

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, June 26.—More hangs on Mexican mediation than merely peace in Mexico, and the Mexican trouble has an Indiana angle that is little dreamed of even by the national guard. There is a well founded belief here that the state will delay trial in the Edwin Ball murder case until the Mexican problem is closed and the minds of Indiana people are no longer agitated by news of army maneuvers. While efficiency of the army with General Funston is a matter so vitally interesting to the American people, it would be foolishness, according to attorneys for the Ball prosecution, to attempt to convict a man on a murder charge after he had killed a man in the performance of his sworn duty. Ball killed Walter Dowell, a private in the Indiana National Guard, when Dowell tried to escape imprisonment and while he was fleeing from Ball, the arresting officer.

The line of reasoning attorneys for the state are understood to be following is something like this. The people are now keenly interested in efficiency for the United States army and the national guard; To have efficiency, the army must have strict discipline; Ball shot Dowell, but he shot as a part of the encampment discipline; A jury with one eye on Mexico and the other on Ball would be apt to free the officer who killed in the performance of his sworn duty.

Arguments of the state through all the many motions in this case has been that the state encampment, of the national guard isn't of enough consequence and not serious enough to warrant a strict interpretation of the guard rules. Attorneys practically have argued that the camp of instruction is a play affair, not to be taken seriously. They now fear that the jury, having in mind the recent crisis when a call to arms for the guard momentarily was expected, and when a mobilization camp similar to the state encampment would have been the result, would look with all seriousness on such an encampment and would support the officer who considered it his

GLASS OF SALTS
CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

TURN HAIR DARK
WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

sworn duty to "shoot to kill" after he had called twice for the fleeing offender to halt.

Ball is a sergeant in the guard. Dowell was a private, Dowell was arrested when intoxicated and Ball was taking him to Fort Benjamin Harrison. Dowell broke away and was fleeing. Ball, according to the defense, called twice according to guard regulations for Dowell to halt, and then shot, "to kill if necessary," when Dowell refused to halt.

Ball, they asserted was acting under orders to take Dowell to camp and was required by military rules to prevent his escape. Had Ball failed to make every effort to prevent the escape or had he failed to shoot to kill as a last resort, he would have been subject to court martial. Indiana, the defense would say in trial, would offer a poor spectacle to its guardsmen if it failed to uphold an officer performing his duty.

Whether the belief of the state that it would be unwise to try Ball now is right or not, it is certain that there has been a marked change here in sentiment over the slaying of the Madison man. Those who at that time condemned it unqualifiedly as utterly unjustified, now in many cases profess to see that the life of an individual, while precious, is not to be weighed against the discipline of the entire national guard. They say that if Indiana is to hold its guard ready for war and expect it to be prepared for active and efficient service, it must consider its discipline sacred.

When the civil court ruled that Ball was answerable to it first for his deed rather than to court martial, it is prior to the Mexican crisis, and its ruling was contrary to best army discipline, the defense asserts. This case is closely watched by the various guard companies in the state, and officers, have asserted their resignation will follow certain action by the civil courts.

An Unfortunate Phrase.

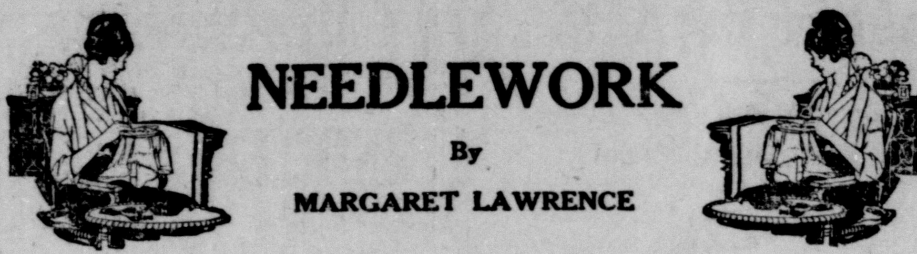

"Franz der kaiser," Napoleon's father-in-law, who was a rather weak and silly ruler, had nevertheless a thoroughgoing belief in absolutism and in the divine right to rule of even the most incompetent of the Hapsburgs. His abilities, such as they were, were best displayed in catechisms that he wrote and printed for the use of his humbler subjects and in peevish criticisms of those of superior intelligence.

According to the author of a recent life of Archduchess Maria Louisa of Austria entitled "An Imperial Victim," the emperor once raged against his doctor for remarking that he had "a good constitution."

"Never let me hear that word again!" he said. "Say robust health if you like. There is no such thing as a good constitution."

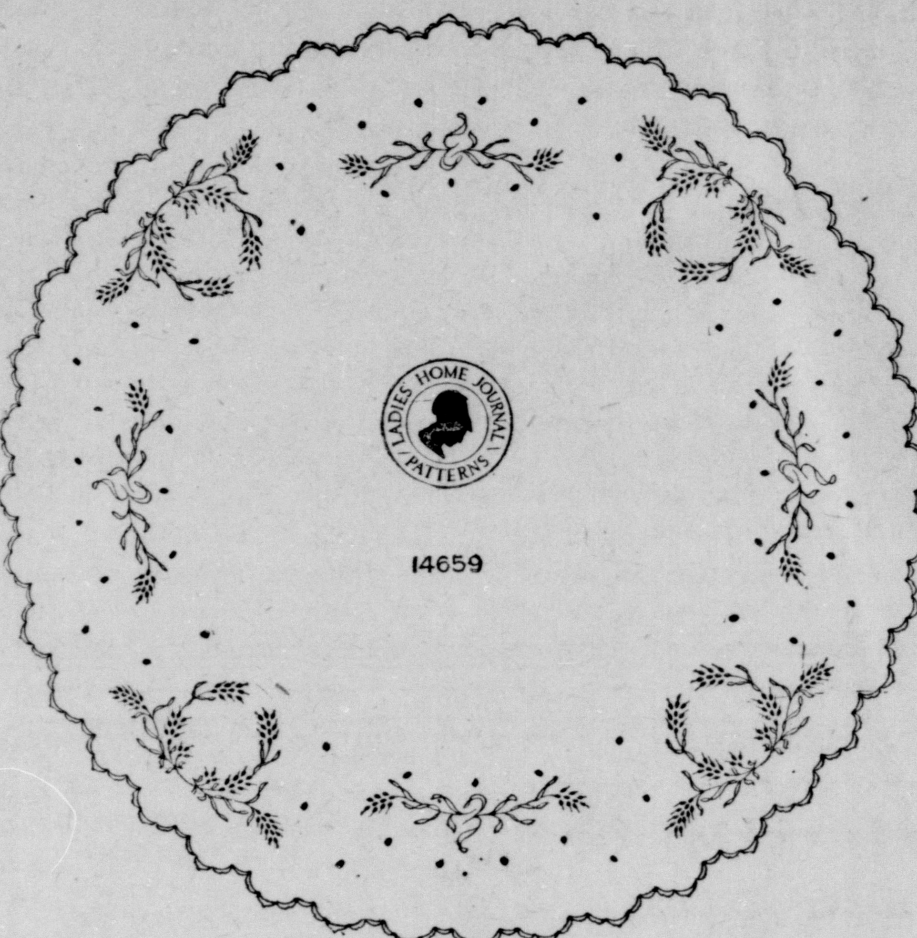

Switzerland's Navy.

Long before Germany was to be reckoned with as a sea power Switzerland possessed a fleet equipped for warfare. Eight hundred years ago on all the larger Swiss lakes armed galleys were maintained by the rival cantons. Skilled shipwrights had to be imported from Genoa for the construction of these vessels, some of which carried crews of 500 men. The largest Swiss flotilla was maintained on the Lake of Geneva, when the inhabitants of Geneva were at war with Savoy. Since the neutrality of Switzerland has been guaranteed by the powers there has been no need for warships on the lakes. The Swiss, however, possess a mercantile navy, which carries a considerable amount of trade over the 342 miles of navigable waterways in the republic.

MAY BE SHOWS 'ALMOST' AS GOOD

off" with "Good Ship Mary Ann," assisted by the chorus. From the very first chorus to the last interest never lagged and the audience was in almost good humor all the time. Stunt after stunt followed in rapid succession. "On My Way to Dixie," as sung by Rastus (Paul McMahan) who had the same garb as Sambo, with the exception that his girth was twice as large, called for an encore, as did everything that was sung or danced.

"Dark Town Poker Club," as illustrated by George (George Hogsett), another of those black-faced waiters with the aeroplane rires, was good and the audience made him repeat it. "Back, Back, Back to Indiana" was sung by Miss Wanda Wyatt and the chorus effect was fine. The reading, "Talkative Waitress," by Hannah Morris brought a round of applause. "My Wonderful Dream Girl," by Dr. Sambo Pearsey was the kind of music folks go to good musical shows to hear and they appreciated it.

"I've Got Everything I Want But You," sung by Miss Martha Hogsett and Denning Havens was so well done that the audience forgot it was a home talent production. The ease and grace with which Miss Hogsett and Mr. Havens danced the chorus was a signal for more applause.

Even grand opera held no terrors for these home talents. The Misses Wanda Wyatt, Norma Smith and Martha Hogsett, and George Hogsett, Paul McMahan and Denning Havens sang "Where Are You Going My Pretty Maid" most creditably. The demonstration of the steps in the Argentine tango by Miss Ruth Innis and Denning Havens received as good a reception from the crowd as any other part of the entertaining program. The audience was compelling. The dance had to be repeated twice.

"Rocked in the Cradle of Love" by Miss Norma Smith, who was ably assisted by four black-faced men, Osborne, Hogsett, McMahan and Pearsey, was one of the cleverest numbers on the program. The chorus stunt was to turn off all the lights and the men held pocket flashlights so that only the faces of the singers were visible. The effect was fine.

Earl Osborne sang "On Their Way to Mexico"—that is, "Almost." His gymnastics were excellent, his lip movements were not to be excelled—in fact, never have been, but he was lacking in voice and Miss Norma Smith ably came to the rescue. As people in the crowd "fell for" the misrepresentation, the laughter began. It spread like smallpox used to. Earl had to give a real, life picture of going to Mexico to war. Armed with an air gun, he marched about the stage as the chorus sang. He was repeatedly recalled.

Those of you who do not see the show, of course, can not appreciate the fact the use of "Almost," which was a song sung by George Hogsett and Sambo Pearsey. It teemed with local color. This fact and the way the two comedians sang it made it possibly the most popular number on the program. The words were written by George Hogsett and were as clever as they were funny. Every line suggested something that was "almost done," as for instance, "I almost saw Cy Yocum playing poker with Lon Link" "I almost saw John Meacham take a drink." Let this be known as a verse. George and Sambo were equal to the occasion for every encore. They kept saving them up. But the crowd wanted too much for the money. The waiters ran out of verses. Then they manufactured a few.

"Venus Waltz," as rendered by Martha Hogsett, Wanda Wyatt, Ruth Innis, Norma Smith, Mary Carr and Denning Havens, called for an encore as did "Castle Walk," as sung by Martha Hogsett and Norma Smith, and George Hogsett and Sambo Pearsey. "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm" was sung by Ruth Innis, Norma Smith, Wanda Wyatt and Martha Hogsett, the last named singing the leading part.

The minstrel closed with a grand finale, the whole cast singing choruses of the most popular song numbers, ending with the Kappa and Psi Oat songs after Bill Hardin (Louis Hiner)

—labeled "Cop," had pulled the joint for remaining open after hours and manager Schuck paid a nice tribute to Mayor Bebout by proposing a toast to the city administration, and lastly to the flag.

The music was under the direction of Miss Martha Hogsett and brought much praise to her for the way it was executed. The stage was beautiful. The ceiling was a mass of foliage and gleaming from it were about fifty electrically lighted Japanese lanterns. The music was hidden by a nifty arbor at the right back corner of the stage. The cashier sat in a little bower. The spotlight was used in all the numbers to excellent effect.

At the last moment Merle Maupin, who had rehearsed twice, demanded an exorbitant price for playing the show and A. G. Steiner of Chicago, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell here, went on and played the accompaniment without a hitch. Mr. Mitchell played the drums.

Ravages of Ants.
The ruins of a splendid city on the north coast of Jamaica remain as evidence of the devastation that red ants are capable of causing. An army of the insects invaded the city one day and drove away every living creature, animal and human, that could escape. Prisoners in the jails and bedridden patients in the hospitals were devoured. Not even a rat or chinch bug remained alive.
In Liberia and other parts of West Africa ant hills as large as native huts are found. The large black ant is the builder of that sort of home. Such ant hills are not unknown in this country, although they are rarely so large; but the black ant rarely invades houses. He is a scavenger and is protected by most farmers.—Brooklyn Eagle.

THE WORK OF A BUSY CONGRESS

Important Legislation That Has Been Enacted.

SECOND IN POINT OF LAWS

Thirteen Acts of General Importance Have Been Passed, and at Least Fifteen More Pieces of Legislation Are Awaiting Action—Hoping to Clean the Slate.

The pending session is destined to be a record breaker, legislatively speaking. At the present time thirteen acts of general importance are now laws as a result of the work of this session of congress. At least fifteen more separate pieces of important legislation await action, the major portion of which is almost certain to pass the house if not the senate before adjournment. No congress except probably the first congress ever passed so many laws, says the New York Post.

The present session of congress is really a hang-over from the last one. Halting only for five minutes, the last session of congress merged into the present one, and after approximately six months of labor this session of congress has produced the following public legislation to date:

Record of Present Session.

A resolution providing a temporary method for conducting the nomination and election of senators under the new constitutional amendment.

Money orders have been made payable at any postoffice.

A law intended to be a model has been passed abolishing a segregated vice district in the city of Washington.

Another act reorganizes the naval militia with a view to greater efficiency.

Another model law was passed regulating the hours of employment and safeguarding the health of women employed in the District of Columbia.

The Alaska railroad bill. Further relief for American citizens in Mexico.

The volunteer bill, providing a complete plan for the organization of an army of defense.

Agricultural extension bill. Legations in Argentina and Chile raised to embassies.

Commission authorized to study vocational education.

Resolution justifying the president in using the armed forces of the United States in Mexico.

Senate has decided election contests in Maryland and Alabama. Mother's day established.

Awaiting Final Action.

This program of legislation, in addition to the appropriation bills, is of considerable length in itself, but the program which is awaiting final action in congress is fully as momentous. It includes:

The immigration bill, carrying an educational test, has passed the house and awaits the disposition of the senate.

Anti-trust legislation, carried in three separate bills in the house, which really embrace six separate pieces of legislation which hitherto have been attempted to be passed separately.

Five separate conservation bills, as follows: Alaska coal leasing bill; bill to encourage prospecting, mining and treatment of radium bearing ores on public lands; reclamation bill, extending time in which settlers may make payments; bill to regulate the development of water power on public lands, and a bill to codify and readjust the mining laws.

Philippine legislation, the Stevens railway safety appliance bill and constitutional amendments providing for national prohibition and for woman suffrage are also ahead.

Hoping to Clean the Slate.

This is the ambitious program now confronting congress. Many members of the house believe that if the senate remains in session long enough on the trust question these measures can all be sent to that body. Rather than have them fall of passage at the short session of congress next winter for lack of time primarily, great pressure will be brought to bear to clean the slate before the adjournment of this session.

The president, however, believes that the anti-trust bill should be passed before adjournment.

PEOPLE IN GLASS HOUSES.

We'll All Live In Them Soon, Is Prediction of a German Writer.

Paul Scheerbart, the well known writer, prophesies that the architecture of the future will be of glass and that the world will be inhabited by a happy race living under the good influence of light.

"The houses will be of glass," he says, "with all wood eliminated. The furniture will be of wrought iron, and the framework of the buildings will be of iron and rustproof, while the walls will be of double glass to insure warmth and of many colors in order to baffle inquisitive persons."

Herr Scheerbart draws a brilliant word picture of a city, with stores, churches and public buildings of glass, all brilliantly lighted, in many colors.

Bruno Traut, the architect, built a palace along these lines at the Cologne exposition.

PLAN FOR STATE TO OBSERVE DAY

Officers of Committee in Charge of Disease Prevention Day Will Open July 1

$1,500 WILL BE REQUIRED

Publicity Will be Given Movement
Through 600 Papers—Is New Stunt for This State.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, June 26.—While hundreds of Indiana men and women of means are enjoying lake breezes and comforts of the summer resorts during the next three months, an earnest little band of enthusiasts in charge of the general arrangements for Indiana's first "Disease Prevention Day" will be sweltering in superheated office rooms in Indianapolis.

Several meetings of the central campaign committee already have been held. This committee is composed of Dr. J. N. Hurty, Charles C. Greathouse, Prof. Severance Burrage, Miss Vida Newsome, Dr. Thomas B. Eastman, Dr. George E. Hunt, Miss Robert Bryce, C. C. Hanch, and Miss Ina Gashill, representing the following organizations. The Indiana State Board of Health, the State Board of Education, the Indiana Federation of Clubs, the Indiana society for the prevention of Tuberculosis, the Indiana State Medical Society, the Indiana State Dental Association, the Indiana Federation of Commercial Clubs, the Indiana State Nurses Association and the Public Health Nurses Association.

The finance committee, composed of Hugh McK Landon, J. I. Holcomb, Frank Jordan and R. D. Oiler, met today and discussed ways and means for raising money to finance the general campaign. It is estimated that $1,500 will be required to run the temporary headquarters that are to be opened July 1. From this temporary office thousands of letters will go out to anti-tuberculosis workers, school superintendents and teachers, clubwomen, doctors ministers, dentists, nurses and officers of commercial organizations, asking their support in making monster demonstrations against preventable disease in 500 Indiana cities and towns on Friday October 2.

A publicity bureau for the purpose of supplying Indiana's 600 newspapers with news and feature matter about the occasion, will be opened soon by the committee. It has been estimated that more than 30,000 letters will be written by the various members of the central committee within the next ninety days.

Through newspaper publicity and personal letters, it is hoped to create an interest through the state that will result in a state-wide observance that will directly interest 800,000 school children and 500,000 adults. The remaining 1,500,000 men and women in the state will be reached indirectly through viewing the pageants, parades, exhibits, etc., that will be staged in all sections of Indiana on that day.

Governor Ralston has announced that he will issue a proclamation in due time, urging all Indiana citizens to co-operate in the movement aimed at disease which can be prevented. Nation-wide attention already has been attracted to this Indiana "stunt" which is now only in the formative stage.

military aids. He has taken charge of the military situation. Orders have been given for food supplies and bedding for the refugees. Thousands are wandering about the streets homeless and hungry.

The fire is the worst in the history of New England since the great Chelsea fire. The suffering is greater than at the Chelsea horror. The heat is terrific. Throughout the city the mercury stood above the 100 mark. Firemen fell in their tracks, exhausted by the heat.

Before midnight the fire was within 100 yards of the postoffice, the Salem News office, the banks, theaters and retail districts.

At 11 o'clock the fire was spreading with such rapidity toward the heart of the business district that the Chief of the department advised all persons in the district to leave for the north shore or Beverly. The freight yards and the train sheds of the Boston and Maine were on fire.

There was no evidence that the fire could be checked. The dynamiters toppled over buildings as if they were made of straw, but their efforts were of little avail. The flames leaped angrily across the abysses and continued their work of destruction.

Great buildings burned as if they were made of straw. There had been no rain for weeks. Everything was as dry as tinder.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Kanerda Jones and Grace Clifton.

MAY BE SHOWS 'ALMOST' AS GOOD

But That Cabaret Minstrel Kappas and Psi Oafs Gave Last Night is Leading the League.

HOME TALENT? ALL BOSH

It Was a Regular Show With Regular Music That Folks go 40 Miles and Pay $2 to See.

*****
TO BE REPEATED TONIGHT.
*****

The management of the cabaret minstrel which was given at the Coliseum last night announced today that it would be repeated tonight at the same place and same time, 8:15. The storm last night kept many people away and many tickets which had been sold could not be used. It is felt that as good a crowd will attend tonight as was out last night.

*****

There have been home talent shows in Rushville "almost" as good as the one presented last night by the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity and the Psi Iota Xi sorority at the Coliseum—but not quite.

To say just what the large crowd that "almost" filled the Coliseum last night, the Cabaret Minstrel was "some show." It was the kind of show that lots of people journey forty miles and pay two dollars to see and do not get half the enjoyment.

The setting was unique, the idea was brand new, the music was far above the average for home talent, the local color injected into the lines made it one Ralph Bingham roar of laughter after another—and best of all, the "stage business" went off without a hitch.

It would be very unjust to say that any one feature of the minstrel contributed any more to the general merit of the night than any other. It was all one conglomeration of fun—just plain fun that left the crowd as good natured as if the temperature had not been up to ninety. In fact as a remover of thought of hot weather and that worn-out feeling, the show led the league.

The stage was doubled in size to accommodate the retentions (Sam) Schuck safe where reigned in all his managerial glory one Sam Schuck (Stanton McBride) and where gun-chewed the evening away one red-headed Marie (Hannah Morris) who disconcerted at length on the disagreeableness of her job and of the palmy days when she was a regular waitress.

The naturalness and ease with which the chorons and principals got on and off the stage without any of that old mania of home talent affairs, staginess, was a revelation and reflected much credit on Denning Havens, who directed the production and who had a very prominent part.

Music came with astounding rapidity once the chorons and principals filed on the stage singing "This is The Life." The guests, Marie Clawson, Harriet Vrelenburg, Allene Budd, Zehna Cox, Belma Clark, Norma Smith, Nettie Clark, Lucile Gray, Mary Carr, Mrs. Carl Gunning and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell, and Welton Brann, Ben Humes, Edward Berry, Edwin Frazee, Carl Gunning, Donald Sparks, Lawrence Clark, Dr. Fred Inlow and Donald Alexander, had seats at tables for four, arranged just like a "regular" cafe.

Dr. Hale Pearsey, who shall be known as Sambo, with the white garb of a waiter, black face, bi-plane necktie and watermelon mouth, "led

COUNCIL TO TALK METERS TONIGHT

Will Hold Special Session Tonight as Contract Black Administration Made is About Out

IT IS NECESSARY TO BUY MORE

The city council will meet in special session tonight to take up the purchase of water meters and to talk over some other things of importance. All the meters that have been installed by the present administration have been purchased by the city under the contract that the Black administration had with the meter companies and as the supply has about been exhausted it is necessary to buy more meters.

Applications for meters have been coming very fast and it will be necessary for the city to purchase more meters at once. The contract that the old administration had is still in force but if this company cannot supply the demand the council will look elsewhere for a suitable meter. The special meeting was to have been held last Tuesday night but all the members could not be present.

AUTHORIZES AN INCREASE IN STOCK

Rushville Glove Company Increases Capitalization $10,000 by Issuing That Much in Preferred Stock.

THE CONCERN IS THRIVING

The Rushville Glove company yesterday authorized an increase of $10,000 in preferred stock. The whole issue will be sold in Rushville and Rush county as it is desired to make this concern as much of a home institution as possible. Only a small amount of the stock is owned out of the county. The total stock of the company now amounts to $25,000.

The glove company has had remarkable success. It is now making a hundred and five thousand dozen pairs of gloves a year, whereas three years ago it was making fifteen thousand dozen a year. The plant is now running full tilt on an order of fifty thousand dozen for one firm. There are fifty people on the payroll and the building where the plant is located is crowded. The top floor was rented when the company first went into the new building. It is possible that the company may have to increase its equipment by a third or a half next fall. The company is in its fifth year now and has everything it can make this year.

Arizona in 1912 produced 350,000,000 pounds of copper.

LOCATION NOT TO BE CHANGED

Promoters of Campaign to Raise Fund For Public Playground Say it Would be Impractical.

LAWN FETE TO BE SATURDAY

Suggestion That Grounds be Connected With Country Club Declared to Have Many Drawbacks.

Persons who are promoting the campaign to raise money for the purpose of equipping a public playground in the city park and employing a supervisor declare that it will not be possible to install the playground any other place than in the city park because the funds were so limited with this understanding.

Women who have agitated the project before this year and who are at the head of the movement this summer say positively that the playgrounds will be placed in the city park for a number of reasons and that it would be impractical to locate it at the Rushville Gun and Country club grounds, as has been suggested in some quarters.

Arrangements are about completed for the lawn fete which will be held on the court house lawn tomorrow afternoon and evening. The proceeds will be used for the playground fund. According to reports, the affair will be well patronized because many people are interested in the undertaking, as is indicated by the large sum which is reported to have been subscribed already. Wagoner's orchestra of twelve pieces will furnish music at the fete.

J. D. Case, who has been circulating the subscription paper, said today that several persons had come to him and stated that they wished to withdraw their name from the subscription paper if the playground were placed at the Gun and Country club. They stated that they had pledged money with the understanding that the playground would be installed at the city park and they did not care to support a movement which would put the equipment on privately owned ground.

The chief argument against installing the playground at the country club is that it would create an additional expense. It could not be expected that the owners of the ground would allow the free use of the land, whereas the city park is owned by the city and the city council has already granted the Rushville Civic Improvement and Social Service association the right to use the park for this purpose.

Another argument advanced against the club grounds is its location. It is true that the city park is not centrally located, but it is more centrally located than the club grounds and there are cement sidewalks from all parts of the city to it. The city park is better situated for children in the north and west parts of the city than is the club grounds.

Furthermore, it is argued that the club grounds are located between the mill race and the river and that there would be too great danger of some of the smaller children drowning.

DEPARTMENT MADE RUN.

The fire department was called to the home of Harry Pea, in West Seventh street, last night about seven o'clock, but the blaze was extinguished without the aid of the department. A mattress on an upstairs bed was found to be on fire and it was thrown out the window. The house was filled with smoke and a severe result. It is not known how the mattress caught fire.

STORM AT LAST BRINGS RELIEF

Heavy Rainfall, Accompanied by Vivid Electrical Display, Lowers Temperature Late Today.

BUT HUMIDITY WAS FIERCE

Before Rain Heat Was Terrific—Storm Last Night Did no Damage to Speak of in County.

*****

STORM LATE TODAY.

A heavy storm passed over Rushville about three-thirty o'clock this afternoon and brought relief from the excessive heat. There was a vivid electrical display that probably did some damage.

People can't be blamed if they see no more hope in a thunder shower. Every time one passes by this way it gets hotter. Today was no exception to the rule. A heavy storm last night broke in this vicinity and Rushville was on the edge of it. Some temporary relief was gained from the storm, but today—

It must have been the humidity again, although as an excuse this is beginning to fall flat. Humidity has been passing off as heat for some time, and allowing heat to fly false colors. But heat has about reached the end of its string. A long suffering people are not thus to be trifled with long. There will be a reckoning.

But to return to the subject of heat and storms and other summer topics the temperature again was edging up to the century dash on the thermometer today. Ever since Sunday the mercury has been doing antics something similar to today.

Beginning with the twenty-seventh, the last four days of June last year were just such as Rushville and Rush county have suffered since Sunday. Then as now the temperature was right at a hundred degrees above zero. About the first of July there was a cool wave that was a great relief, but toward the last of July there was another hot "spell" when the temperature was up to 105 above zero.

Later reports of the storm near Orange yesterday afternoon are in effect that a number of trees were struck by lightning and that several telephone poles were splintered by bolts.

The same storm that caused the loss of a barn and shocked a man near Orange did some damage in the vicinity of Raleigh. A cow in a field on Omer Gatewood's farm was killed by lightning. A number of trees were struck.

KANGAROO COURT

(By United Press.)

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 26.—Sheriff Gladioux's plan whereby he said he would insure good order among the prisoners in the county jail by establishing a "court" there is receiving no little criticism here, by many who term it a "kangaroo" court. The sheriff says this "court" never fines a man more than $1. and that the money always is put in a general fund for the purchase of tobacco. Prisoners say that the maximum fine is what the prisoner has; that many prisoners are flogged and that a "big black negro" is the high court officer who does the pocket searching.

The sheriff denies the flogging charge and says his "court" is only for the enforcement of discipline.

HE FORGOT COLLECTION

Terre Haute, Ind., June 26.—Indignation of local church goers who happened to be in the Christian church here recently was nearing the boiling point when the Rev. Arthur Deeter, one of the oldest ministers in the city, continued on nation changed to delight, for Rev. Deeter was so interested in his subject that he turned the sermon off and on, preaching one of the longest sermons on record. But the indignation into a benediction, forgetting to pass the collection box.

Rev. Deeter admitted it. "I did forget it," he chuckled, "and I had to borrow from my wife this week."

Weather Bureau Today Predicts Big Temperatures For South and East Ohio Valley.

Washington, June 26.—Two deaths and over 50 prostration during the last three days of the heat wave was the record here. Continuation of the hot spell generally in the east and south was the prediction by the weather bureau today.

High temperatures east and south for the Ohio valley are predicted. "Somewhat warmer in the lower lake and middle Atlantic states," was the way the prediction read.

CASE CONTINUED.

SEVEN DIE IN THE SALEM FIRE

Revised Figures Today Places Estimate on Loss in Massachusetts City at $10,000,000.

FIRE STILL BURNED TODAY

Thousands of People Made Paupers at One Blow Roam Streets and Water Famine Threatens

(By United Press.)

Salem, Mass., June 26.—Seven dead is the toll of the great Salem fire that was raging today and had continued since late yesterday. Revised estimates of the loss today places it at $10,000,000. The fire was still burning fiercely today, but it was confined to the original two-mile belt.

The dead are: Miss Mary Fiske, nurse, killed by excitement while in an ambulance; Mrs. Edward McGrone, killed by heart trouble when her house caught fire; John Lee, owner of Chinese laundries, body found in ruins; unidentified child; unidentified body believed to be Mrs. Sarah Abbott; two other unidentified bodies found in ruins.

Added to the horror today was a great scarcity of water almost threatening famine. Springs outside the city were in great demand. Thousands of people made paupers at one blow roamed the streets today. Many were frantic with fear for missing friends. The firemen were completely spent after twenty hours of struggle with insufferable heat.

The midnight great fire-fighting force of nearly 1,000 men, drawn from all the cities and towns within a radius of 25 miles was helpless. The water supply has given out.

Dynamite has taken the place of water in the mad fight to check the flames. But this is ineffective. The center of the city is doomed. Ten thousand persons are homeless.

Unfolding horrors have come in the wake of this terrible calamity. Scores have gone mad, driven insane by the excessive heat and the excitement. The mercury stood at 94 degrees when, with a small explosion, fire started in a leather factory in the manufacturing section of the city. Then came the first alarm, a second a general and then calls for help to outside cities and towns.

Fanned by a fresh gale from the northwest, the fire spread. Carried a mile by flying embers, flames began in other sections of the city until at last three large sized conflagrations were raging.

Panic reigns in the city. The militia, aided by nearly 1,000 policemen from this and other cities, stands guard about the ruins, keeping off the looters.

Added to the horror of the situation, before midnight came the information that firebugs were at work. Two fires started shortly after 10 o'clock. One was in the Salem Savings bank, opposite the office of the Salem News. Another was in Arnold's stable, off Mason street. Firemen say both fires were of incendiary origin.

Terror was increased by the fear that persons had been driven mad by the fire and had become incendiaries. No one knew where the flames would be seen next.

At 10 o'clock the great Nannkeag Cotton Mills, one of the greatest cotton manufacturing plants in New England, was in ruins.

Governor Walsh arrived here tonight, accompanied by a number of his

WHEAT HARVEST

What Happens When Farmers Call For Hands.

UNSKILLED GET $2.50 A DAY

A Description, From the Spot, of the Arrival of the Harvesters—What They Are Like, How They Come, How They Are Received and How They Are Put to Work.

"Menless jobs instead of jobless men" in the very immediate future throughout the United States are predicted by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Western farmers want harvest workers. In Kansas the wages range from $2.50 to $3 a day for unskilled labor and higher prices for engine drivers and expert workers.

On the southern border of the Kansas wheat belt the army of harvesters has begun its labors. While there has gone out a demand for $2,000 men, to work in the entire wheat belt, the first great call and the most insistent is from Kansas, where 60,000 harvesters are needed, according to the report of the labor bureau. Allowing for duplications, this has been cut to 42,000, with 6,300 extra teams and 2,300 cooks. Just why there should be this need is not understood until one travels over the wheat counties. The Kansas City correspondent of the New York Post in an interesting article explains conditions.

The average county in the wheat section has a small population. The farms are large, the towns small. Take Pawnee county, for instance, out in southwest Kansas. It has a population of 8,500 or 17,000 families. There are 275,000 acres of wheat to cut and thrash. If every available man in the county could be put at the job the work would not be done during the short period during which wheat must be handled. Once ripe, the heads shell freely, and the grain must be garnered.

How Help Is Obtained.

As the present crop approached its splendid promise, with what amounts to two crops in one, the farmers began to call for help. This has been developed into a system. With a state labor bureau in correspondence with county officers, city clerks, farmers and township officers, the needs are tabulated. Even the fraternal orders have taken a hand, and have sent back to Indiana, Ohio and other states to fraternities to send men west. Hundreds of college boys have been enlisted and come to the harvest fields for the experience and to earn vacation money.

When a single county, as is the case with several in southwest Kansas, needs 2,000 to 4,000 men it is policy for the railroads to get the men there and save the crop. Thousands of dollars have been sent east to pay the transportation of workers, the agents of the western roads holding the funds contributed by farmers and wiring orders to furnish tickets. To pay this army means a large drain on the currency supply of the interior banks.

The 40,000 men in Kansas will draw over $100,000 a day for labor alone, to say nothing of the expense in feeding them. Most of this money will be taken out of the state, for except what is spent in traveling the harvesters have no expense personally. Likewise it is all currency, for the farmer finds his checks of little value to strangers.

The class of men westward bound for the harvest includes workmen from the lumber camps, factory men seeking a bit of outdoor work with good wages, college boys and small farmers from adjoining states.

Met by Waiting Employers.

Farmers in automobiles, wagons and buggies wait for the men at the stations, and cook shacks are ready in the fields to serve meals.

The men are, for the most part, unfamiliar with harvest work, but they are given the routine hand labor, while experienced men handle the binders and headers. In addition to the imported labor, all available local help is busy, and the towns are for the time deserted of able-bodied laborers.

The gathering of 8,000,000 acres of wheat in Kansas, for instance, is not all done at one time. The work begins on the southern border, and three or four weeks elapse before the army of workers reaches the Nebraska line. The wheat ripens slowly, the lower latitudes first turning yellow. This means economy of time and effort, for the men who have first begun will go with the ripening of the wheat northward until they reach the northern limit, thus getting a month or more of steady work. The peculiarity of this year's wheat is that the straw is heavy, and binders will be used more freely than in most years.

Marks a Change in American Indian. Typifying in a striking degree the changed status of the American Indian of today, the first club ever formed of college students of Indian blood has effected a permanent organization in Oklahoma. In a general way it has as its purpose the betterment of the race and the preservation of Indian history and traditions. Its specific purpose is to interest the young folk in college education. The name of the club is "Okfuska Degotega" and means "tribes standing together."

Elephant and Tiger Enmity.

One of the most interesting employments of the elephant is in hunting tigers. From the lofty back of his elephant, at a height which, increased by the howdah, may be twelve or fourteen feet above the ground, the hunter can take his aim at a tiger with a coolness that he would not possess if facing the animal on terra firma. If, as sometimes occurs, the tiger makes a leap for the elephant he seldom succeeds in attaining the man in the howdah, although the driver in his exposed position on the elephant's neck, is in greater danger.

There seems to be a natural enmity between elephants and tigers, although an elephant will not attack a tiger unless cornered or compelled to do so by the tiger's own fault. But then a good fighting elephant will if he can once get his tusks to bear on his enemy gore him to death or literally crush him by kneeling on him. It is said that the mere presence of a dead tiger will drive some elephants to fury.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

The other is a western drama "A Romance of the Forest Reserve." Both are said to be exceptionally good pictures.

The Gem will show a two reel Imp feature "Miss Nobody From Nowhere" for the first picture tonight. It is said to tell a series of thrilling adventures and features Ethel Grandin and Hobart Henley. The other is a Powers drama entitled "The Skeleton," showing Wallace Reid and Dorothy Davenport in the leads. The picture "Samson," which the Gem will show next Monday and Tuesday nights, is told in six wonderful reels and was taken from the book of Judges, with startling accuracy. J. Warren Kerrigan and his sister Kathleen do some great work in this picture. It is to be most sensational, dramatic and awe-inspiring picture ever made and is woven around the life of the most popular hero of ancient times.

Indiana, the Pivot.

Indiana, the pivotal state, is in dire danger of slipping back into the Republican column, and "as goes Indiana so goes the nation," according to a statement by a brilliant Indiana Democrat—famed as far as the creed is flung—made to a Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, a Democratic newspaper.

"It is lamentable," the above-mentioned Democrat is reported to have said, "and in some cases absolutely pathetic—this slaughter of splendid prospects and of loyal men. Take Indiana. Since the war Indiana has been the pivotal political state. As goes Indiana, so goes the country, has been a truthful battle cry since the days of Morton and Hendricks.

"In November the Indiana Democrats will be lucky if they save seven representatives out of the general wreck. The President has built this status for Indiana.

"When Mr. Wilson made his demand for 'unqualified repeal, ungrudgingly granted,' Senator Kern came back to the Senate corridor sad of speech and sadder of heart.

"I looked for a great logical reason for this repudiation of the platform, said he, a convincing reason from the great leader who demanded it. But I had none. I am opposed to this surrender. I am unconvinced. But I am an organization Democrat. I must follow my leader, by all the precedents. And he did.

"And so did Ben Shively. There never was a braver and a better Democrat than Ben Shively. He is the backbone of the party in my state. He is always orthodox and loyal. He was deeply hostile to this repudiation of the national platform of his party. He foresaw grave danger and heavy loss. He fell in with a serious face behind the Presidential order and resolved to do his best and took his place in the ranks. He even hoped—did Senator Shively—that the Administration and the party might survive the error of the tolls repeal and pull through with a saving election, and even perhaps with a vindication of the year's record.

"But now, when the President seeks to pile Colombia upon Panama—another apology, another surrender and 25,000,000 simoleons of subsidy upon the winning sentiment of suffering Colombia—it is too much. It is a clear, straight surrender of Senator Ben F. Shively to the wolves of red-blooded Americanism."

CALLS ATTENTION TO PARTY PLEDGE

Republican Chairman Today Issues Statement to "Every Well-Wisher of Good Government."

HOLDS PLEDGE IS SACRED

Results of Primaries Over State Show Thousands of Well-Wishers Are Coming to its Support.

[Special to the Daily Republican.] Indianapolis, Ind., June 26.—The Republican State Central Committee today issued from headquarters in the Hotel Severin the following statement addressed to "every well-wisher of good government in Indiana."

In the platform adopted at the last Republican State Convention is this declaration:

"Recognizing party management and control should, at all times, be responsive to, and representative of, the sentiment and will of the membership of the Party, and believing that an indifferent attitude towards this principle has been responsible in the past, we pledge ourselves to such reforms, in the methods of Party organizations, management and control, that in the future the right of individual participation on the part of membership within the Party shall be sacred and inviolable, and we further pledge ourselves that Party Programs, Party Platforms and Party Candidates shall be expressive only of the majority sentiment within the Party, free from dictation or duress on the part of Party management."

This is the declaration of the party in convention assembled and is the party's sacred pledge. It shall be our absolute purpose to carry out this declaration. The results of the primaries being held over the State show that thousands of well-wishers of good government are rallying to the Republican standard, and it is our most sincere desire that they all may know that every-one shall have an equal voice in the management of the Republican party's affairs. We regard this provision in the party's platform as our solemn promise. Its fulfillment shall be our most earnest, constant aim, and we ask the co-operation of every Republican to that end. We want every man who ever, in his life, voted the Republican ticket to know this. The advice, assistance and co-operation of everyone is most earnestly requested and will be most thoroughly appreciated.

The country needs a re-united Republican party. Remember, what his country needs, it is the duty of every man to give. Let us make the re-united Republican Party the one agency in this country to apply to new conditions the wisdom of experience and the efficacy of honest, zealous service—all "that no harm shall come to the Republic."

WILL H. HAYS, Chairman.

FIGHT MEANS MUCH TO MORAN

Should he Deliver the Necessary Punch to Jack Johnson he Would Have Fortune.

SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY

No Popularity For Colored Man Even if he Wins—$30,000 Win, Lose or Draw.

(BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS, Paris Correspondent of the U. P.)

Paris, June 26.—Jack Johnson and Frank Moran, black and white, meet here Saturday night at the Velodrome d'Aliver. If the white man wins, the lucky punch will be worth a fortune to him. If his punch lacks the necessary ginger, good night Mr. Moran.

That is the way the betting man sizes up the fight. For Moran it means everything. Either he will open his eyes on Sunday morning a famous fighter, with a golden sunrise and a golden day in front of him, or he will regain consciousness only to realize that his son has set and he is not even a has been; that he has had his chance and not made good; that he is an almost-was yet a never-waser.

For Jack Johnson the fight doesn't mean so much. If he defeats Moran he will do more than is expected of him here. He will not gain a particle in popularity despite the fact that his need of public adoration is now a negligible quantity. Should he take the count, he would lose nothing since he has nothing to lose. Win, lose or draw, he gets only his $20,000, plus $5,000 training expenses which he has now drawn. Lose or win he will become a professional automobile driver, having already signed a contract with certain makers of a Belgian car and a French firm of tire-makers, and made his plans for taking part in the French Grand Prix and the Russian Circuit this summer.

In his own words: He has "got his." A black satellite of Johnson's told the United Press correspondent "Jack don't care how the fight comes out: he's got his already and the way his future business is mapped out, it isn't going to hurt him much win or lose." There is only one hitch in this statement; Johnson hates the white man and unless circumstances have altered since the wise ones had a look-in, he will try to put Moran to sleep.

Moran, just emerging from his training camp on the banks of the River Oise—this stream is pronounced "was" in French, whatever, if any significance that may have—is quite the most cheerful, not to say nonchalant person hereabouts. Self-confidence bubbles over the top. And when anybody asks him if he expects to retire to the River Oise on Sunday he comes back with the merry persiflage: "Wrong number, Steve; after Saturday night my home's on the River Is."

If Moran, the Merry, is right in his dope, that same little River Is will mean be one of milk and honey, of gold and banknotes, for the lad from Smoketown, Penn., will be the most popular here who ever told the Statue of Liberty, Good Morning. Roosevelt's return from Africa; Cook's return from the North Pole (or vicinity), or any of the other homeromers will have nothing on him while vaudeville engagements and all the other spoils of pug-championship will put him where Rockefeller will be grinding his false teeth. If he gets licked: Curtain.

Johnson has already signed to fight Sam Langford in London in September or October, Dick Klegin, the youngster who staged motor polo in England being the sporting impresario back of the match. According to Dick and Jack no mention of the possible change of address on the part of the championship belt is mentioned in the contract. Gunboat Smith and George Carpenter, the latter being the French championship heavyweight of Europe, fight in July, in London, for the title of white heavyweight champion of the world. The winner of this event, it is said will fight the winner of the Moran-Johnson will. This means that the American Smith will be the next aspirant, if betting odds and past performances mean anything.

The Velodrome d'Aliver—Winter Velodrome—promises to be jammed Saturday night. It holds some 35,000 people. Ordinarily it is used as a cycleroce arena but now everything is changed. The saucer track is so covered with numerous seats and the flat spaces inside the course is littered with chairs. Ringside seats are offered at $50 plus 10 per cent for the "poor tax" levied by the government.

The Velodrome is in the western outskirts of Paris, within a stone's throw of the River Seine. It is very difficult to reach save in taxis or other similar conveyances, surface cars and the underground—which at this point is 60 feet overhead—running to all points save those a person desires to go. A short distance farther west is the Issy-des-Moulinais Aerodrome; to the east is the Eiffel Tower and the big wheel; across the river is the Trocadero.

All about the building are the tiny wineshops, little groceries and so on, such as one sees in any big town suburb, the keepers of which are conservative Frenchmen who think "La savate" is the thing and that Moran and Johnson will try to kick each other to death in the ring.

The Belgian Congo has no native industries.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness results, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

COLLEGE HILL HERE SUNDAY

Member of Saturday Afternoon League of Cincinnati Will be Attraction Against Rushville

KE JOHANNES WILL PITCH

Arcadians Expect a Hard Game and Team Will Have to Play Ball—New Outfielder Signed

The Arcadians expect a hard game Sunday when they take on the fast College Hill team of Cincinnati. The College Hill team is a member of the Saturday afternoon league there and has been playing good ball. The fans will have a chance to see Ike Johannes perform. Ike has consented to do the pitching and he is expected to give a good account of himself.

The fans have not been taking to the sport here as they should and Manager Fisher was talking some of closing the park. If the attendance Sunday proves satisfactory the Arcadians will continue. A change is likely to be made anyway as Fisher is determined to give the fans a fast article of ball. He will carry out the schedule if the fans show that they will support a good team.

He has booked some of the best attractions in semi-pro ball. Following the game Sunday with the College Hill team the Cincinnati Superbas will come for a return game and then the Cincinnati Shamrocks will play here. Following the game with the Shamrocks, Newcastle will be taken on. Fisher is determined to beat Newcastle this year and will work with this in view. There will not be any change in the lineup for Sunday with the exception of third base, but a change is likely to take place after Sunday if Fisher has his way.

A general shake-up will come if it is necessary to let the entire team go, but what Fisher will have a winner. The game here for the past two Sundays has proved a losing venture but the management believes if the fans are given a good attraction like the team coming Sunday the crowd will warrant the expense. The College

KILLED BY A MOSQUITO

Exactly — there are hundreds of deaths each year that can be directly or indirectly traced to the simple little bites of mosquitoes. These little pests carry and spread disease. It's not so much the sting of their bite as the dread of infection. Therefore you should take extra precaution to treat mosquito bites as being more than mere bites.

Penslar Skeeter Dig

not only allays the itch and sting, but sterilizes the part affected because of its antiseptic and healing properties. Used as a protection from the effect of mosquito bites, this lotion becomes doubly valuable. Put a bottle of it in your grip. —

Hill team is under the management of John Bruce and the team is composed of some real ball players. Whether Rushville wins or not the fans should see a real ball game.

The College Hill team will lineup as follows: Lemon, catcher, Fresh pitch. Reuter, first; Turner, second. Franks, short; E. Franks, third; Mangold, left; Humphrey, center and Bauer, right. Fisher has secured a new outfielder for Sunday and he may be given a chance. His name is Hanna and he formerly played on the Purdue University team. He is said to be a good hitter.

GUNMEN NOT WANTED

Evansville, Ind., June 26.—Gunmen aren't wanted in Evansville. Mayor Bosse says he never carried a gun and he doesn't see why anyone else should. He has instructed the police to pay particular attention to the right-hand pocket of strangers. He told his aides to watch certain gamblers and relieve them of their "irons". He says he will break up a few games that have been going on.

STATE DELAYS
MURDER TRIAL

Mexican Mediation is Cause of Ball
Case not Being Heard—Keen
Interest Taken

WOULD BE HARD FOR JURY

Civil Court has Ruled That he is
Answerable for Deed Rather
Than Court Martial

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, June 26.—More hangs on Mexican mediation than merely peace in Mexico, and the Mexican trouble has an Indiana angle that is little dreamed of even by the national guard. There is a well founded belief here that the state will delay trial in the Edwini Ball murder case until the Mexican problem is closed and the minds of Indiana people are no longer agitated by news of army maneuvers. While efficiency of the army with General Funston is a matter so vitally interesting to the American people, it would be foolishness, according to attorneys for the Ball prosecution, to attempt to convict a man on a murder charge after he had killed a man in the performance of his sworn duty. Ball killed Walter Dowell, a private in the Indiana National Guard, when Dowell tried to escape imprisonment and while he was fleeing from Ball, the arresting officer.

The line of reasoning attorneys for the state are understood to be following is something like this. The people are now keenly interested in efficiency for the United States army and the national guard; To have efficiency, the army must have strict discipline; Ball shot Dowell, but he shot as a part of the encampment discipline; A jury with one eye on Mexico and the other on Ball would be apt to free the officer who killed in the performance of his sworn duty.

Arguments of the state through all the many motions in this case have been that the state encampment of the national guard isn't of enough consequence and not serious enough to warrant a strict interpretation of the guard rules. Attorneys practically have argued that the camp of instruction is a play affair, not to be taken seriously. They now fear that the jury, having in mind the recent crisis when a call to arms for the guard momentarily was expected, and when a mobilization camp similar to the state encampment would have been the result, would look with all seriousness on such an encampment and would support the officer who considered it his

CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

TURN HAIR DARK
WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

sworn duty to "shoot to kill" after he had called twice for the fleeing offender to halt.

Ball is a sergeant in the guard. Dowell was a private. Dowell was arrested when intoxicated and Ball was taking him to Fort Benjamin Harrison. Dowell broke away and was fleeing. Ball, according to the defense, called twice according to guard regulations for Dowell to halt, and then shot, "to kill if necessary," when Dowell refused to halt.

Ball, they asserted was acting under orders to take Dowell to camp and was required by military rules to prevent his escape. Had Ball failed to make every effort to prevent the escape or had he failed to shoot to hit as a last resort, he would have been subject to court martial. Indiana, the defense would say in trial, would offer a poor spectacle to its guardians if it failed to uphold an officer performing his duty.

Whether the belief of the state that it would be unwise to try Ball now is right or not, it is certain that there has been a marked change here in sentiment over the slaying of the Madison man. Those who at that time condemned it unqualifiedly as utterly unjustified, now in many cases profess to see that the life of an individual, while precious, is not to be weighed against the discipline of the entire national guard. They say that if Indiana is to hold its guard ready for war and expect it to be prepared for active and efficient service, it must consider its discipline sacred.

When the civil court ruled that Ball was answerable to it first for his deed rather than to court martial, it is prior to the Mexican crisis, and its ruling was contrary to best army discipline, the defense asserts. This case is closely watched by the various guard companies in the state, and officers, have asserted their resignation will follow certain action by the civil courts.

An Unfortunate Phrase.
"Franz der kaiser," Napoleon's father-in-law, who was a rather weak and silly ruler, had nevertheless a thoroughgoing belief in absolutism and in the divine right to rule of even the most incompetent of the Hapsburgs. His abilities, such as they were, were best displayed in catechisms that he wrote and printed for the use of his humbler subjects and in peevish criticisms of those of superior intelligence.

According to the author of a recent life of Archduchess Maria Louisa of Austria entitled "An Imperial Victim," the emperor once raged against his doctor for remarking that he had "a good constitution."

"Never let me hear that word again!" he said. "Say robust health if you like. There is no such thing as a good constitution."

Switzerland's Navy.
Long before Germany was to be reckoned with as a sea power Switzerland possessed a fleet equipped for warfare. Eight hundred years ago on all the larger Swiss lakes armed galleys were maintained by the rival cantons. Skilled shipwrights had to be imported from Genoa for the construction of these vessels, some of which carried crews of 500 men. The largest Swiss flotilla was maintained on the Lake of Geneva, when the inhabitants of Geneva were at war with Savoy. Since the neutrality of Switzerland has been guaranteed by the powers there has been no need for warships on the lakes. The Swiss, however, possess a mercantile navy, which carries a considerable amount of trade over the 342 miles of navigable waterways in the republic.

NEEDLEWORK
By MARGARET LAWRENCE

Of all the household furnishings, nothing appeals more strongly to the eye of the housekeeper than attractive table linen, and a hand embroidered centerpiece adds charm as well as a touch of individuality to the table.

An exceptionally lovely centerpiece may be made of fine round-thread linen or damask and embroidered with the wheat design, 14659. The kernels should be developed in wheat-stitch or eyelets, the leaves in solid work and the dots in eyelets or solid work. White mercerized cotton No. 20 should be used in developing this design as well as the scalloped edge, which should be heavily padded. This design is 36 inches in diameter and may be made larger by adding a Cluny lace edging.

Guaranteed, hot-iron transfer pattern will be supplied for 15 cents.

Not only will the hair become soft, fluffy, radiant with life and really doubly beautiful, but all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching scalp ease—your head feels fine.

All druggists sell a large bottle of Parisian Sage for fifty cents. Get it from P. B. Johnson & Co., they will refund the money if you are not satisfied.

off" with "Good Ship Mary Ann," assisted by the chorus. From the very first chorus to the last interest never lagged and the audience was in almost good humor all the time. Stunt after stunt followed in rapid succession. "On My Way to Dixie," as sung by Rastus (Paul McMahon) who had the same garb as Sambo, with the exception that his girl was twice as large, called for an encore, as did everything that was sung or danced.

"Dark Town Poker Club," as illustrated by George (George Hogsett), another of those black-faced waiters with the airplane ties, was good and the audience made him repeat it. "Back, Back, Back to Indiana" was sung by Miss Wanda Wyatt and the chorus effect was fine. The reading, "Talkative Waitress," by Hannah Morris brought a round of applause. "My Wonderful Dream Girl," by Dr. Sambo Pearsey was the kind of music folks go to good musical shows to hear and they appreciated it.

"I've Got Everything I Want But You," sung by Miss Martha Hogsett and Denning Havens was so well done that the audience forgot it was a home talent production. The ease and grace with which Miss Hogsett and Mr. Havens danced the chorus was a signal for more applause.

Even grand opera held no terrors for these home talents. The Misses Wanda Wyatt, Norma Smith and Martha Hogsett, and George Hogsett, Paul McMahon and Denning Havens sang "Where Are You Going My Pretty Maid" most creditably. The demonstration of the steps in the Argentine tango by Miss Ruth Innis and Denning Havens received as good a reception from the crowd as any other part of the entertaining program. The audience was compelling. The dance had to be repeated twice.

"Rocked in the Cradle of Love" by Miss Norma Smith, who was ably assisted by four black-faced men, (Osborne, Hogsett, McMahon and Pearsey, was one of the cleverest numbers on the program. The chorus stunt was to turn off all the lights and the men held pocket flashlights so that only the faces of the singers were visible. The effect was fine.

Earl Osborne sang "On Their Way to Mexico"—that is, "Almost." His gymnastics were excellent, his lip movements were not to be excelled—in fact, never have been, but he was lacking in voice and Miss Norma Smith ably came to the rescue. As people in the crowd "fell for" the misrepresentation, the laughter began. It spread like smallpox used to. Earl had to give a real, life picture of going to Mexico to war. Armed with an air gun, he marched about the stage as the chorus sang. He was repeatedly recalled.

Those of you who do not see the show, of course, can not appreciate the fact the use of "Almost," which was a song sung by George Hogsett and Sambo Pearsey. It teemed with local color. This fact and the way the two comedians sang it made it possibly the most popular number on the program. The words were written by George Hogsett and were as clever as they were funny. Every line suggested something that was "almost done," as for instance, "I almost saw Cy Yocum playing poker with Lon Link" "I almost saw John Meacham take a drink." Let this be known as a verse. George and Sambo were equal to the occasion for every encore. They kept saving them up. But the crowd wanted too much for the money. The waiters ran out of verses. Then they manufactured a few.

"Venus Waltz," as rendered by Martha Hogsett, Wanda Wyatt, Ruth Innis, Norma Smith, Mary Carr and Denning Havens, called for an encore as did "Castle Walk," as sung by Martha Hogsett and Norma Smith, and George Hogsett and Sambo Pearsey. "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm" was sung by Ruth Innis, Norma Smith, Wanda Wyatt and Martha Hogsett, the last named singing the leading part.

The minstrel closed with a grand finale, the whole cast singing choruses of the most popular song numbers, ending with the Kappa and Psi Out songs after Bill Hardin (Louis Hiner)

—labeled "Cop," had pulled the joint for remaining open after hours and manager Schuck paid a nice tribute to Mayor Bebout by proposing a toast to the city administration, and lastly to the flag.

The music was under the direction of Miss Martha Hogsett and brought much praise to her for the way it was executed. The stage was beautiful. The ceiling was a mass of foliage and gleaming from it were about fifty electrically lighted Japanese lanterns. The music was hidden by a nifty arbor at the right back corner of the stage. The cashier sat in a little bower. The spotlight was used in all the numbers to excellent effect.

At the last moment Merle Maupin, who had rehearsed twice, demanded an exorbitant price for playing the show and A. G. Steiner of Chicago, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell here, went on and played the accompaniment without a hitch. Mr. Mitchell played the drums.

Ravages of Ants.
The ruins of a splendid city on the north coast of Jamaica remain as evidence of the devastation that red ants are capable of causing. An army of the insects invaded the city one day and drove away every living creature, animal and human, that could escape. Prisoners in the jails and bedridden patients in the hospitals were devoured. Not even a rat or chinch bug remained alive.
In Liberia and other parts of West Africa ant hills as large as native huts are found. The large black ant is the builder of that sort of home. Such ant hills are not unknown in this country, although they are rarely so large; but the black ant rarely invades houses. He is a scavenger and is protected by most farmers.—Brooklyn Eagle.

THE WORK OF A BUSY CONGRESS

Important Legislation That Has Been Enacted.

SECOND IN POINT OF LAWS

Thirteen Acts of General Importance Have Been Passed, and at Least Fifteen More Pieces of Legislation Are Awaiting Action—Hoping to Clean the Slate.

The pending session is destined to be a record breaker, legislatively speaking. At the present time thirteen acts of general importance are now laws as a result of the work of this session of congress. At least fifteen more separate pieces of important legislation await action, the major portion of which is almost certain to pass the house if not the senate before adjournment. No congress except probably the first congress ever passed so many laws, says the New York Post.

The present session of congress is really a hang-over from the last one. Halting only for five minutes, the last session of congress merged into the present one, and after approximately six months of labor this session of congress has produced the following public legislation to date:

Record of Present Session.
A resolution providing a temporary method for conducting the nomination and election of senators under the new constitutional amendment.

Money orders have been made payable at any postoffice.

A law intended to be a model has been passed abolishing a segregated vice district in the city of Washington.

Another act reorganizes the naval militia with a view to greater efficiency.

Another model law was passed regulating the hours of employment and safeguarding the health of women employed in the District of Columbia.

The Alaska railroad bill.

Further relief for American citizens in Mexico.

The volunteer bill, providing a complete plan for the organization of an army of defense.

Agricultural extension bill.

Legations in Argentina and Chile raised to embassies.

Commission authorized to study vocational education.

Resolution justifying the president in using the armed forces of the United States in Mexico.

Senate has decided election contests in Maryland and Alabama.

Mother's day established.

Awaiting Final Action.

This program of legislation, in addition to the appropriation bills, is of considerable length in itself, but the program which is awaiting final action in congress is fully as momentous. It includes:

The immigration bill, carrying an educational test, has passed the house and awaits the disposition of the senate.

Anti-trust legislation, carried in three separate bills in the house, which really embrace six separate pieces of legislation which hitherto have been attempted to be passed separately.

Five separate conservation bills, as follows: Alaska coal leasing bill; bill to encourage prospecting, mining and treatment of radium bearing ores on public lands; reclamation bill, extending time in which settlers may make payments; bill to regulate the development of water power on public lands, and a bill to codify and readjust the mining laws.

Philippine legislation, the Stevens railway safety appliance bill and constitutional amendments providing for national prohibition and for woman suffrage are also ahead.

Hoping to Clean the Slate.

This is the ambitious program now confronting congress. Many members of the house believe that if the senate remains in session long enough on the trust question these measures can all be sent to that body. Rather than have them fall of passage at the short session of congress next winter for lack of time primarily, great pressure will be brought to bear to clean the slate before the adjournment of this session.

The president, however, believes that the anti-trust bill should be passed before adjournment.

PEOPLE IN GLASS HOUSES.

We'll All Live in Them Soon, Is Prediction of a German Writer.

Paul Scheerbart, the well known writer, prophesies that the architecture of the future will be of glass and that the world will be inhabited by a happy race living under the good influence of light.

"The houses will be of glass," he says, "with all wood eliminated. The furniture will be of wrought iron, and the framework of the buildings will be of iron and rustproof, while the walls will be of double glass to insure warmth and of many colors in order to baffle inquisitive persons."

Herr Scheerbart draws a brilliant word picture of a city, with stores, churches and public buildings of glass, all brilliantly lighted, in many colors. Bruno Traut, the architect, built a palace along these lines at the Cologne exposition.

PLAN FOR STATE TO OBSERVE DAY

Officers of Committee in Charge of Disease Prevention Day Will Open July 1

$1,500 WILL BE REQUIRED

Publicity Will be Given Movement Through 600 Papers—Is New Stunt for This State.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, June 26.—While hundreds of Indiana men and women of means are enjoying lake breezes and comforts of the summer resorts during the next three months, an earnest little band of enthusiasts in charge of the general arrangements for Indiana's first "Disease Prevention Day" will be sweltering in superheated office rooms in Indianapolis.

Several meetings of the central campaign committee already have been held. This committee is composed of Dr. J. N. Hurty, Charles C. Greathouse, Prof. Severance Burroughs, Miss Vida Newsome, Dr. Thomas B. Eastman, Dr. George E. Hunt, Miss Robert Bryce, C. C. Hanch, and Miss Ina Gashill, representing the following organizations: The Indiana State Board of Health, the State Board of Education, the Indiana Federation of Clubs, the Indiana society for the prevention of Tuberculosis, the Indiana State Medical Society, the Indiana State Dental Association, the Indiana Federation of Commercial Clubs, the Indiana State Nurses Association and the Public Health Nurses Association.

The finance committee, composed of Hugh McK Landon, J. I. Holcomb, Frank Jordan and R. D. Oiler, met today and discussed ways and means for raising money to finance the general campaign. It is estimated that $1,500 will be required to run the temporary headquarters that are to be opened July 1. From this temporary office thousands of letters will go out to anti-tuberculosis workers, school superintendents and teachers, clubwomen, doctors ministers, dentists, nurses and officers of commercial organizations, asking their support in making monster demonstrations against preventable disease in 500 Indiana cities and towns on Friday October 2.

A publicity bureau for the purpose of supplying Indiana's 600 newspapers with news and feature matter about the occasion, will be opened soon by the committee. It has been estimated that more than 30,000 letters will be written by the various members of the central committee within the next ninety days.

Through newspaper publicity and personal letters, it is hoped to create an interest through the state that will result in a state-wide observance that will directly interest 800,000 school children and 500,000 adults. The remaining 1,500,000 men and women in the state will be reached indirectly through viewing the pageants, parades, exhibits, etc., that will be staged in all sections of Indiana on that day.

Governor Ralston has announced that he will issue a proclamation in due time, urging all Indiana citizens to co-operate in the movement aimed at disease which can be prevented. Nation-wide attention already has been attracted to this Indiana "stunt" which is now only in the formative stage.

SEVEN DIE IN THE SALEM FIRE

military aids. He has taken charge of the military situation. Orders have been given for food supplies and bedding for the refugees. Thousands are wandering about the streets homeless and hungry.

The fire is the worst in the history of New England since the great Chelsea fire. The suffering is greater than at the Chelsea horror. The heat is terrific. Throughout the city the mercury stood above the 100 mark. Firemen fell in their tracks, exhausted by the heat.

Before midnight the fire was within 100 yards of the postoffice, the Salem News office, the banks, theaters and retail districts.

At 11 o'clock the fire was spreading with such rapidity toward the heart of the business district that the Chief of the department advised all persons in the district to leave for the north shore or Beverly. The freight yards and the train sheds of the Boston and Maine were on fire.

There was no evidence that the fire could be checked. The dynamiters toppled over buildings as if they were made of straw, but their efforts were of little avail. The flames leaped angrily across the abysses and continued their work of destruction.

Great buildings burned as if they were made of straw. There had been no rain for weeks. Everything was as dry as tinder.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Kanarda Jones and Grace Clifton.

On Next Saturday, June 27th

The H. J. Heinz Co. will hold an all day demonstration at our store. We extend a cordial invitation to everyone to call and sample the products of this well known firm.
